Francestown Board of Selectmen to Host Police Public Forum

The Francestown community is invited to attend a public forum on May 20th at 7:00 p.m. regarding the future of the police department and the Town's next police Chief. The Board of Selectmen is hosting the public forum at the Francestown Elementary School gymnasium to provide the public with a brief update regarding the current status of the police department and to solicit feedback and comments from residents and taxpayers on a number of police related matters, including:

- Important qualities and characteristics of the next Chief of Police;
- Priorities in terms of police services, including optimal level of service and coverage; and
- Interest in exploring regionalization of police services or increased collaboration with other departments.

Residents who are unable to attend on the 20th, but would like to share their thoughts are asked to send them to Town Administrator Michael Branley by noon on 5/19 via email at selectmensoffice@francestownnh.org or by mail to PO Box 5 Francestown NH 03043.
